CONNECTICUT'S FIRST PSYCHOPATHIC WAR AT NORWICH STATE HOSPITAL

Since the new psychopathic ward at the Norwich state hospital was opened this spring, the staff has had its first ward of this character in operation, and the new $250,000 building, which was erected with accommodations for 100 patients, has been abundantly proving what effective measures can be used in the treatment of psychopathic cases.

Probably there is no more up-to-date building of its kind on the Atlantic coast. Dr. Franklin S. Wilcox, superintendent of the hospital, has seen to it that every modern means for the diagnosis and treatment of mental disease has been provided in the new building, and the reports of what has been accomplished there in the treatment of mental cases have become so thoroughly known that members of some of the most prominent families in the state have become voluntary patients there and have been discharged recovered or greatly improved.

Recoveries accomplished at such institutions as the Norwich state hospital have operated in the past few years to the great benefit of the community. The fact that there are more applying for admission to such institutions does not necessarily imply that there is a general increase in insanity. Dr. Wilcox, that the number of insane in the state is increasing, but is merely because people recognize that there is no loss of self-respect in seeking treatment there.

Acting on the belief that it is useless to attempt the cure of mental disease as long as the patient is confined to a pronounced physical ailment, Dr. Wilcox has instituted a system by which every patient received is put through a rigid physical examination in which every member of the hospital staff participates. An important detail in this is X-ray photographs of the head which are taken with the improved equipment with which the psychopathic ward is provided, and photographs of the body also, any growths in head or body are revealed which may have produced the mental disorder and also reveal whether the condition may not have come from an injury.

The presence of faulty teeth is also revealed by the X-ray and these are removed. Over 5,000 have been pulled in the last year. Tussocks at the roots of teeth often contribute to nervous breakdowns. Diseased tonsils also come within the scope of examination and removal, and eye defects are corrected wherever possible.

For the purpose of restoring lost nervous functions, patients are passed through complete system of baths which is a distinct feature of the psychopathic ward. Every conceivable kind of shower, spray and steam treatment is provided in the bath department.

The treatment under way most of the patients are assigned to some occupation in the industrial department, which includes the bakery, making, weaving and the manufacture of silencers, tops and furniture. Others are kept busy taking care of the extensive buildings and grounds. The physicians of the hospital do not lose sight of the fact that all patients may be benefited, even if not restored to mental health, by the development of the line for which they appear to be best suited, industrially.

Out of 452 patients in all classes discharged from the Norwich state hospital in a period of 21 months, 184 were recovered, 163 improved, and 37 not insane. Only 81 remained unimproved, and they were harmless cases.

The interior of the psychopathic ward is a revelation. Conducted like a general hospital, it is wholly free from the atmosphere of the old "insane asylum." The patients' dining room presents fully as bright and cheerful an appearance as that provided for the attendants and nurses. Clean white tablecloths on several round tables, arranged for groups of ten or ten patients, and lace curtains at the windows lend a homelike aspect. There are private rooms and private bathrooms, and by many such statutes the violation is made a felony.

It is suggested that all posts be advised of this fact and directed to have no connection with any form of boycott. Practically every suggestion of avoiding these statutes, which has been adopted by any Legion post is clearly within prohibition of the law.

The legion has also had a warning against a man who is selling house lot and representing himself as connected with the organization.

AMERICAN LEGION.

Robert O. Fletcher, post American Legion, together with legions all over the country, has received a bulletin issued by National Adjutant Lemuel Boies calling attention to the fact that lotteries are illegal.

The bulletin is issued in an attempt to discourage the holding of lotteries by American Legion posts.

Complaints have come in to national headquarters from various sections of the country to the effect that many posts of the American Legion are securing funds through the sale of lottery tickets, and that the sale of such tickets is contrary to law.

In practically every state in the Union, either by statute or the Constitution, lotteries are declared to be illegal.

"Federal law prohibits the sending of lottery tickets through the mail. Penalties are provided for violation of these statutes, and by many such statutes the violation is made a felony."

It is suggested that all posts be advised of this fact and directed to have no connection with any form of boycott. Practically every suggestion of avoiding these statutes, which has been adopted by any Legion post is clearly within prohibition of the law.

The legion has also had a warning against a man who is selling house lot and representing himself as connected with the organization.

343 MAKES OF "ORPHAN" MOTOR CARS IN STATE

There are 343 makes of "Orphan" cars in use in Connecticut today, it was disclosed Friday at the state motor vehicle bureau.

The state motor vehicle bureau, a department book giving the total production of different kinds of machines, shows that the information is provided for the state of all makes of 1925 cars, and no longer being manufactured. Only 197 of the cars listed are now being made.

Forty-five cars that were once well known makes, but which are no longer manufactured, have been discontinued for various reasons. Some of the more prominent of these are the Abbot-Deane, Adams, Allen-Kingston, Alcaz, (made in Springfield), Bergdoll, Alcaz, Cameron, Carter (Car, Chadwick, Elmore, Corbin (made in New Britain), Elmore, E. M. P. Empire, (Gardner, Grou, (made in Springfield), Lamber, L. M. Palmer, (Palmer-Simpson), Pope-Hartford, (made in Hartford), Pullman, Regal, S. G. Simpson, Standard, (made in Wallingford).

Notwithstanding the fact that these 343 makes of cars are no longer being produced, it is necessary for the motor vehicle bureau to keep them in its department rating book, as some of these makes are still being offered for registration in this state. The rating book is prepared to assist owners in a new system, adopted by the last session of the legislature. Previously, motor vehicle registration fees in Connecticut were determined by the horsepower of the car.

Several of the manufacturers of cars among the 343 makes which are no longer produced have merged with other manufacturers, and are now putting cars on the market. Others have gone out of business or turned to other manufacturing pursuits.

PRODUCTION OF AUTOMOBILES IS GREATER THAN EVER

According to information in the hands of the Connecticut motor vehicle department, present day automobile manufacturing is now producing cars at a greater rate than the production rate of the peak year of inflation, 1920. Returns compiled by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce show that in 1925 an output of 256,000 cars was produced, as against 225,000 in 1920. This rate of 2,450,000 a year, but this rate is not expected to be maintained for the closing six months of the year.

The output for the first six months of this year was 1,137,000 cars, which indicates that the record for one year, made in 1920, when 2,205,197 cars were produced, will be broken. This is considered to be a good test of business prosperity, and is pointed to by the motor vehicle department as an indication of the greater need for safety precautions in driving.

Indo-China is covered with a complete radio telegraphic system, comprising fifteen stations equipped with the best high-powered apparatus. The system is under the control of the French navy, and reports are made to the navy and financial reports and the news of the day.

THE HOUSEHOLD

At twelve noon today (Saturday) there will be an assembling of Prophets of Nemrod Grotto at the Grotto hall for their pilgrimage to Happyland, with their families for the biggest out-of-bake, ever held at this place of recreation.

The committee having put forth all efforts to make the outing a banner event, can assure everyone a good time, if good weather prevails.

With nine sporting events in line, beginning at 2 p. m., followed by a real "out in the field" bake at 4 o'clock, the day is sure to be filled with life and pep.

The program for events is as follows: Assemblage at 2 p. m., D. S. T., at Nemrod hall, leaving by auto at 12:15 for Happyland, where at 1 o'clock a preliminary luncheon will be served, consisting of clam chowder, soda crackers, brown and white bread with butter, sliced tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuce.

The sports will follow in close succession under the direction of Chairman Alex Finlay of the committee, with Prophets A. K. Manning and George E. Zimmerman as judges. The events, all of which bring prizes, are as follows: Baseball game, married and single prophets, tug of war, married and single prophets, 100 yard dash for Nemrod Prophets, 100 yard dash for single and married prophets, 50 yard dash for ladies, 50 yd dash for girls, 50 yd dash for boys, sack race, open to all.

After the sports everyone should have a kept up appetite and the bake will be put to the test, and close the day's activities with a real "out in the field" pleasure regularly afforded by the management.

MOOSE.

The local lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will hold its annual clambake and field day at Happyland Sunday, Sept. 26. In the near future the secretary is to mail out postcards to all members to prepare the committee for accommodation and representation of the members.

The committee in charge is arranging the transportation question and the time and place designated for the Moose to meet will be published soon. The committee intends to make the clambake and field day the best one on record and hope that all those who desire to go, will be able to get to the place of festivities.

The judges were Mr. and Mrs. Adams from the Grotto grange and Cliff D. Dwyer of Preston City grange. Their decision was in favor of the married members, which means that the single members are to furnish refreshments for a scholastic contest.

Among the matters that are of interest to the members in the section are the appointment of F. J. Murtha as deputy grand chief ranger for New London county, also the appointment of Henry A. Condon as deputy grand chief ranger at large. Both men are hard and energetic workers for the interests of Forestry and are deserving of the appointments. It is a disappointment for Mr. Murtha and Mr. Condon, who are both men of high character and who have been active in the Forestry movement for many years.

At one of the best attended meetings of the Court City of Norwich this year, the chief ranger appointed an outing committee which, under the guidance of Chairman George Fox, has met and set August 20 as the date at which all Foresters in this city will meet at the Drawbridge, and enjoy that sociability for which all Foresters' gatherings are noted. This is the first outing since the Foresters' convention at the State Fair, and the Foresters are looking forward to it with interest.

The degree team of Court City of Norwich is now getting in trim for the fall and winter season and the members are busy bringing in new candidates for the first workout on Sept. 24. A large number of out of town members have stated their intention of being present on that night.
